

Royal Historical Society Symposium

Political Thought in Revolutionary Ireland, c1912-23

Teesside University 8-9 September 2016

Middlesbrough

TG.02, the Curve

---

Thursday 8th September

---

- 5.00 – 5.45: Tour of Middlesbrough Institute of Modern Art (mima)
- 6.00- 7.30: Reception (with music, poetry and prose) in the Curve, Middlesbrough Campus.
-

Friday 9th September

---

- 9.00-9.15: Registration in the foyer of the Curve.
- 9.15-10.00 Prof Senia Paseta (University of Oxford)
‘Feminist Political Thought’
- 10.00-11.00 Dr Colin Reid (Northumbria University)
‘Unionist Political Thought’
- Dr James McConnel (Northumbria University)
‘The Political Thought of the Irish Parliamentary Party’

Tea and Coffee

- 11.20-11.50 His Excellency Dan Mulhall, Irish Ambassador to Britain
- 11.50-1.10: Dr Ultán Gillen (Teesside University)
‘Empire and Irish Political Thought’
- Dr Charlie McGuire (Teesside University)
‘Socialism in Ireland’

Dr Roisín Higgins (Teesside University)
'The Politics of Patrick Pearse'

Lunch

2.00-3.00: Dr Lauren Arrington (Liverpool University)
'The Political Ideology of Countess Markievicz'

Dr Emmet O'Connor (Ulster University)
'The 1919 Democratic Programme'

3.00-4.00: Dr Caoimhe Nic Dháibhéid (Sheffield University)
'Republican Political Thought after 1916'

Dr Marc Mulholland (Oxford University)
'The Counter-Revolution'

Tea and Coffee

4.30-5.30: Keynote Address: Prof Richard Bourke (Queen Mary, University of London)
'Reflections on the Political Thought of the Irish Revolution'

The event is free. To register contact arts@tees.ac.uk.

The organisers are grateful for the support of the Royal Historical Society

