RHS Annual General Meeting

Friday, 27 November 2020

17.00 GMT
Held virtually via Zoom
In 2021, TRHS will begin to accept submitted articles for peer review, while continuing to publish material based on RHS-sponsored lectures and conferences.

- An opportunity for more fellows and members to publish research in TRHS.
- An opportunity to engage with pedagogy and key issues facing the discipline.
- Part of the RHS commitment to ‘work towards greater equality, inclusion and representation in historical practice, research and teaching’.

For further details email Andrew Spicer at trhs@royalhistsoc.org
RHS Policy work

• Data Protection and Historians in the UK (July 2020)

• LGBT+ Histories and Historians (September 2020)

• Race, Ethnicity and Equality: Roadmap 2 (November 2020)

https://royalhistsoc.org/policy/
New Historical Perspectives

A new, open-access book series for early career scholars commissioned and edited by the RHS, and published by the Institute of Historical Research and the University of London.

royalhistsoc.org/publications/new-historical-perspectives/
Gladstone Book Prize
For a first scholarly book in a subject outside British or Irish history by an author who received their doctorate from a British or Irish university.

Whitfield Book Prize
For a first scholarly book in British or Irish history by an author who received their doctorate from a British or Irish university.

Alexander Prize
For a historical essay or article published in 2020 in a journal or edited collection, by a current or recent PhD candidate in a UK institution of HE.

David Berry Prize
For an essay on an aspect of Scottish History that is a genuine work of research based on original (manuscript or printed) materials.

Rees Davies Prize
For an outstanding MA thesis submitted in 2020 for a 1 year full-time (2 year part-time) PG degree in a UK institution of Higher Education.

Jinty Nelson Award for Inspirational Teaching & Supervision
For outstanding and sustained commitment to supervision in History.

RHS Innovation in Teaching Award
For excellence in undergraduate and/or postgraduate teaching in History.

RHS PRIZES 2021
Nominations now open!

For all eligibility criteria and deadlines: royalhistsoc.org/prizes
Supporting Research

In addition to our usual Research Support Grants, the RHS provided £28,000 of hardship funding to 56 early career researchers.

• This was made possible through donations to our JustGiving campaign and from Past & Present.

• In partnership with Adam Matthew Digital, we provided 12 month free subscriptions to 63 early career historians.

2021 deadlines:
25 January, 29 March, 7 June, 18 October

https://royalhistsoc.org/grants/
Join the Royal Historical Society

2021 deadlines for Membership and Fellowship applications: 4 January, 22 March, 31 May, 4 October.

For more information, please visit: https://royalhistsoc.org/membership/
Giving to the RHS

“Every gift made to the Royal Historical Society is important for the future development of the study of history. We are a learned society with charitable status, receiving no government funding and reliant on philanthropic support.”

https://royalhistsoc.org/support-the-rhs/Farewells

• Professor Frances Andrews - Vice President
• Mr Richard Fisher - Vice President
• Professor Ken Fincham - Vice President
• Dr Alix Green - Hon. Director of Comms
• Dr Marcus Collins - Council
• Dr Andrew Roach – Council
• Professor Jane Winters – Council
• Mr Peter D’Sena – Council