PROGRESSIVE WOMEN AND ENGLISH THEOLOGY IN THE EARLY TWENTIETH CENTURY

Ripon College Cuddesdon was formed by the merger of two theological colleges in 1975, Cuddesdon Theological College and Ripon Hall. This day conference celebrates the 125th anniversary and inheritance of Ripon Clergy College (as it was founded, in 1898).

A stellar line-up of speakers, including Professor Frances Knight (University of Nottingham), Dr Joy Dixon (University of British Columbia) and Dr Alana Harris (King’s College, London) will speak on such figures as Mrs Humphry Ward, Henrietta Barnett and Maude Royden, chaired by Professor Jacqui deVries (Augsburg University, Minneapolis), and centred on a celebratory midday eucharist at which Professor Jane Shaw (University of Oxford) will preach.
